Fall 2026 Course Descriptions

DBIB 363 End Time Events (Biblical Eschatology) (3 credits)

This is a study of Old and New Testament teachings on eschatology, including those aspects of the kingdom of God that are already present and those yet to be fulfilled. Specific attention is given to concepts such as messiah, resurrection, tribulation, millennium, judgment, signs of the times, and kingdom of God.

DTHE 399 Signs and Wonders I (3 credits)

This course is designed to allow students to study the manifestation of signs and wonders in the history of the church, to learn from those servants of God whose ministries are characterized by signs and wonders, and to experience signs and wonders in their own lives and ministries.

DPRM 305 Teaching the Bible (3 credits)

Fundamental and advanced methods of Bible study relating to teaching situations in the church are studied. Thorough consideration of background information is encouraged for proper understanding of biblical situations and their application to our present time.

DPRM 312 Faith and Human Development (3 credits)

A study of "whole-person" development and a wide range of practical Christian ministry in the local church context. It includes physical, intellectual, social, moral, and faith development for all ages.

Ministry Practicum - DPRM 320 (1 credit requirement for an advanced certificate)

The purpose of this ministry practicum is to provide the student with practical experience in ministerial responsibilities and in a broad range of roles performed in ministry. Trainees gain competence in essential areas of local church ministry.
